Parishwide Home Rule Charter Amendment Proposition

Shall Article II, Section 2-202(6) of the Home Rule Charter of the City of New Orleans be amended to provide that no law shall arbitrarily and unreasonably discriminate against a person based on conviction history?

- ☐ Yes ☐ No

What happens if you vote “YES”?

The New Orleans Bill of Rights would be amended. As it currently reads, the Bill of Rights states that no citizen should face discrimination based on race, color, religion, national origin, birth, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, culture, language, social origin, or political affiliation. This amendment would add conviction history to the list of protections, meaning a person’s past convictions could not be used as a basis for discrimination.

What happens if you vote “NO”?

The Bill of Rights would remain the same.
