A closed primary system means each political party chooses its own candidate before the general election.

- Republicans vote only in the Republican Runoff
- Democrats vote only in Democratic Runoff
- Voters with “No Party” can choose ONE party’s runoff to vote in. If you are registered in a different party (i.e. Libertarian or Green) and want to participate in the Closed Runoff—you MUST change your designation to NO PARTY before June 6 and then choose to vote in the Republican or Democratic Runoff
